2.3

Salah requires maximum humility, dignity and grace. Hence, whilst approaching Salah, the Musalli should be fully composed and dignified. Running towards the Salah panting and grasping for breath due to hastening for Salah is contrary to the etiquette of Salah.

It is reported by Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه that: "I heard Nabi صلى الله عليه وسلم saying: "When the Iqamah is given for Salah, do not approach it running, but come to it walking and observe dignity and grace. The part of the Salah you get (with the imam), offer it, and that part you miss, complete it (thereafter). (Abu Dawud)
