

Global Food Shortages

A global humanitarian crisis is looming with the alarmingly high & increasing food prices. Many countries are struggling to obtain food supplies for their citizens. This may lead to starvation and famine for millions, if not billions all around the world, especially in the poorer countries.

What Should We Do In These Difficult Times

Earlier in the year, Darul Ihsan had issued a notice titled, “2008 WHAT TO EXPECT?”. In that notice a 6 point action plan was set out. Some of these points are repeated hereunder:

- A single Fardh Salaah should not be missed.
- Engage in Istighfaar (and other Zikr) as much as possible.
- Live within one's means. Save money. Avoid extravagance and wastage. Every cent counts.
- Try to help the poor as much as possible. Start with those nearest to you, e.g. give your servants/employees a loaf of bread at the end of the working day and a grocery hamper at the end of the month. Help neighbours, family & friends in need. Encourage others as well.

May Allah make it easy for the entire Ummah
