as much gold as Mount Uhud it would not amount to as much as one date, or half of it spent by them.” (Muslim)

2. “Allah! Allah! (Beware) never to oppose my companions. Do not take them as a target (of abuse) after me, He who loves them, loves me due to his love for me, and the one who hates them, hates them because of his hatred for me, and he who offends them, offends me and in turn offends Allah and he who offends Allah, Allah will deal with him.” (Tirmizi)

3. “The sign of faith is to love the helpers (Ansar), and the sign of hypocrisy is hatred for the helpers.” (Bukhari & Muslim)

The honour of the illustrious Sahabah ﷺ should always be held in the highest esteem and they should be accorded their due respect. Without Sahabah ﷺ, there would be no link between us and Nabi ﷺ. Sahabah are the practical manifestation of the teachings of Nabi ﷺ. If there was no other accolade awarded to Sahabah, it would suffice for their honour and excellence, that they were blessed with gazing upon the noble countenance, and benefitting directly from him.

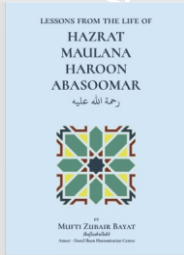

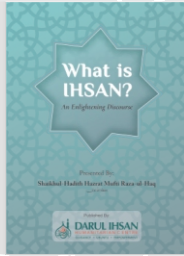

'AZAMATU AHLIL BAYT WAS SAHABAH' EDUCATION CAMPAIGN

Darul Ihsan Centre initiated the 'Azamatu Ahlil Bayt was Sahabah' programme in 2009. The programme is an educational series of talks, programmes, booklets and media content to educate Muslims on the great rank of the Sahabah. The objective of the campaign is to revive the awareness, virtues, teachings and achievements of the noble companions. With the Grace of Allah Ta'ala this campaign has been ongoing and programmes are held regularly. Thus far, an unbroken chain of over 45 dedicated programmes on Sahabah were held in various towns and Masajid of South Africa. Together with the programmes regular educational material about the noble Sahabah is printed and promoted through the Masjid notice boards, website and social media. These posters can be downloaded from www.darulihسان.com.

Muslims are encouraged to learn and study their illustrious lives and bring alive their legacy so we can also earn the pleasure of Almighty Allah just as they had.
